DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS AND STATISTICS

SPECIAL SEMINAR

Speaker: Grady Burkett, Diamond Hill Capital Management
Title: Mathematics and the Investment Industry
Date: Tuesday, April 12, 2016
Room/Time: Talk: 11:00 a.m. Room 340 Oelman
Host: Dr. Ayşe Şahin

ABSTRACT:

The investment industry offers a vast selection of interesting career options, and mathematics can provide an excellent academic foundation for investment professionals. During this talk, Grady will provide an overview of the investment industry, outline various career choices available, and share his perspective on entering the industry and building a successful career.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Grady Burkett is a Chartered Financial Analyst who is working as a research analyst for Diamond Hill Capital Management. He obtained his B.S in Mathematics from Wright State University in 2002 followed by his M.S. in Mathematics in 2004. He was recognized as an outstanding graduate student teacher and as an outstanding graduate student. Prior to working for Diamond Hill he worked as a Senior Equity Analyst for Morningstar. He was named as the Wright State 2016 Outstanding Alumni for the College of Science and Mathematics on February 26, 2016.